NEWWA
New England
Water Works
ASSOCIATION

NEW ENGLAND WATER WORKS ASSOCIATION

Established in 1882, the New England Water Works Association (NEWWA) is a not-for-profit organization incorporated in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. The association is the leading authority on education, training opportunities, and public outreach to protect and improve drinking water and water utility operations. NEWWA continues to be an instrument of change to advance the knowledge, science, government awareness, and public trust of the water works profession.

NEWEA
WORKING FOR WATER QUALITY

NEW ENGLAND WATER ENVIRONMENT ASSOCIATION

With over 2,100 professionals in the water quality field, the New England Water

Environment Association (NEWEA), seeks to protect and enhance our water environment with a focus on shared interest, knowledge, ideas and energies. NEWEA is a not-for-profit educational and technical professional organization, founded in 1929 and still going strong.

3

AMERICAN PUBLIC WORKS ASSOCIATION

(New England Chapter)

Originally chartered in 1937,

APWA is the largest and oldest organization of its kind in the world with 64 chapters throughout North America. Founded in 1954, the New England Chapter is one of APWA's largest chapters. APWA provides a forum in which public works professionals can exchange ideas, improve professional competency, increase the performance of their agencies and companies, and bring important public works-related topics to public attention in local, state and federal arenas.
