CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

COLLECTION SYSTEMS SPECIALTY CONFERENCE & EXHIHBIT

Boxboro Regency Hotel, Boxborough, Massachusetts
Thursday, September 10, 2020

Abstract Submission Deadline: Friday, May 8, 2020

The Collection Systems Committee of the New England Water Environment Association is pleased to announce that the 2020 Collection Systems Specialty Conference & Exhibit will be held at the Boxboro Regency Hotel in Boxborough, MA (I-495 Exit 28, Rte.111). The committee is requesting abstracts regarding non-dispersibles and preventive maintenance/technology. Topics covering planning; design; construction; and rehabilitation of collection systems will also be accepted.

The Committee welcomes all abstracts pertaining to the following topics:

- Non-Dispersibles (Hot Topic!)
- Preventative Maintenance / Technology (Hot Topic!)
- Asset Management
- Computer Applications (Digital, GIS, Modeling)
- Control of SSOs / CMOM
- Designing with Maintenance in Mind
- Energy Concerns/Initiatives/Incentives
- Fats, Oils and Grease (FOG) Programs
- Flow Metering Techniques using Realtime Systems
- Geotechnical Issues
- Infrastructure Resilience
- Innovative Systems / Approaches
- Inspection Techniques / PACP / MACP
- Low Head/Pressure Sewer Systems
- Maintenance Equipment / Techniques
- Management Systems
- Master Plans
- Odor, Sulfide and/or Corrosion Control
- Pipeline Management Software
- Preparing for Emergencies
- Private Source Inflow/Infiltration (I/I) and Control Techniques
- Public Outreach
- Pumps/Screens
- Regulatory Related Issues / Changes
- Rehabilitation Methods
- Safety
- Siphon Design, Maintenance, and Rehabilitation
- SCADA in Sewer Management
- Smart Sewers
- Trenchless Technologies / Tunneling
- Wastewater Flow Control
- Wastewater Pumping Systems

Submit Abstracts Online >>

Abstract deadline is Friday, May 8, 2020. Presenters are responsible for registration and travel fees for this event. Questions may be directed to the NEWEA office at 781-939-0908.