

Women in Water Forum Resources

Books

Boots on the Ground, Flats in the Boardroom, Transportation Women Tell Their Stories

Written by: Grace Crunican and Elizabeth Levin

Available on Amazon

Film

- All In. Documentary addresses voting rights in the context of the arc of history, including women's suffrage and intersectionality with the legacy of slavery and Jim Crow.

<https://www.allinforvoting.com/>

- Film screenings by Suffrage100MA: <https://suffrage100ma.org/category/events/film-screenings/>

- The Fight for Women's Suffrage: Looking Back, Marching Forward!: 30-minute film on women's suffrage

Podcast

- "Brené with Melinda Gates on The Moment of Lift": Brene Brown and Melinda Gates talk about how it will take 208 years to achieve equality between men/women in the US at the current rate of change.

<https://brenebrown.com/podcast/brene-with-melinda-gates-on-the-moment-of-lift/>

- "Feminism in Black and White": Scene on Radio Podcast, Season 3, Episode 4.

<http://www.sceneonradio.org/episode-50-feminism-in-black-and-white-men-part-4/>

- "After the Glass Ceiling, a Glass Cliff": Podcast exploring why women and POC are generally appointed to CEO roles when companies are failing/struggling:

<https://freakonomics.com/podcast/glass-cliff/>

Web

- Brookings report highlighting that the water industry is 85% male and 65% white:

<https://www.brookings.edu/research/water-workforce/>

- Website with more details from the World Economic Forum (see the Gender Gap Report) on the 208 year estimate: <https://www.equalitycantwait.com/>

- MA Suffrage website: Suffrage100MA.org

- Suffrage100MA Resources page, including book lists, history,

films: <https://suffrage100ma.org/resources/>

- Suffrage100MA Partners - For any non-profit organizations

- Suffragist of the Month: a joint project from the Commonwealth Museum and Suffrage100MA that commemorates events that lead to the passage of the 19th Amendment.

<https://www.sec.state.ma.us/mus/suffragists.html>